

That's why we offer travel protection that's tailor-made for Canadian travelers.

Whether we're travelling for work or pleasure, staying at a second home or visiting relatives, the unexpected can and does happen.

And when you're in an unfamiliar place, dealing with a tragedy can be so much harder, compounded by unknown languages and unanticipated costs.

What do you do?

Where do you start?

The best answer?

Start here and now, before you leave.

Getting your loved one home, no matter what the circumstances, is but one toll-free phone call away for members of Safe Return Assistance Plan.

MacKinnon and Bowes, unquestionably the Canadian experts in the repatriation and transfer of deceased people from anywhere around the globe, will be at your fingertips, navigating the storm. They will manage everything, from dealing with funeral service providers to obtaining the death certificate, and overseeing all transportation, including transportation for a travel companion.

With respect and care, MacKinnon and Bowes will bring your loved one home for the funeral services you wish.

With a single, one-time payment, your Safe Return Assistance Plan lifetime membership covers you wherever you go. Whether it's beyond 100 km from your home or in another country, for a month or a day, Safe Return Assistance Plan will take care of everything.

In addition to no-cost repatriation, your membership will provide:

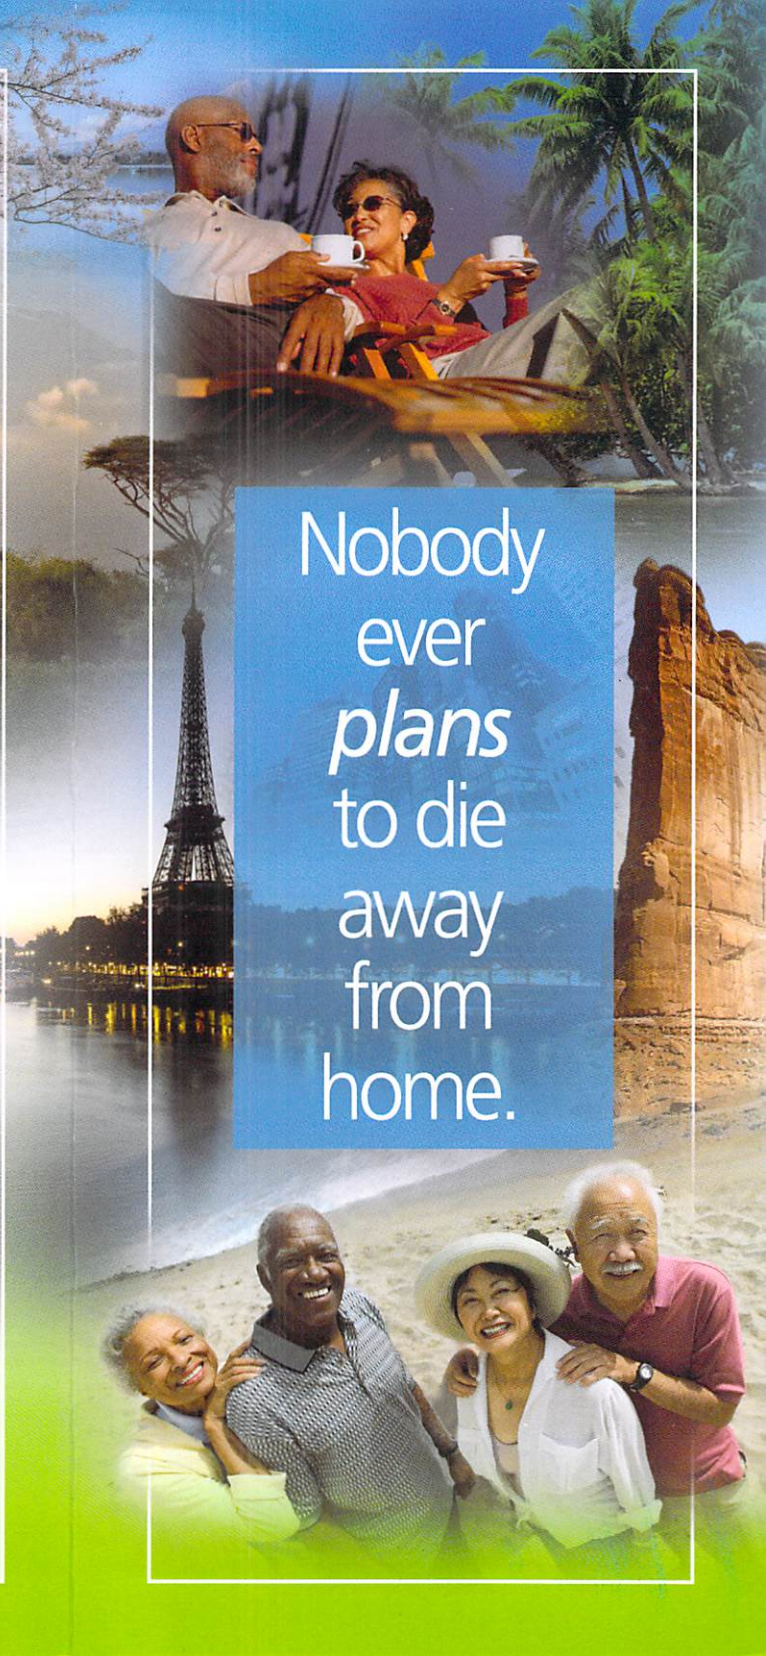

- A customized enrollment kit including a wallet card and two personalized luggage tags;
- Comprehensive online access to travel planning information, including destinations for seniors, government travel advisories, and helpful tips for safe and prepared travel;
- Access to a semi-annual newsletter.

Perhaps best of all, you will have the peace of mind to travel knowing that you are in the hands of a 100% Canadian-owned and operated company that cares about supporting your loved ones by returning you home with dignity.

Travel often. Travel well.
Travel without worry.
